Farmer Defined

A "farmer" is any person engaged in the business of growing, raising, or producing, upon the person's own lands or upon the lands in which the person has a present right of possession, any agricultural product to be sold. A "farmer" does not include a person growing, raising, or producing such products for the person's own consumption; a person selling any animal or substance obtained therefrom in connection with the person's business of operating a stockyard or a slaughter or packing house; or a person in respect to the business of taking, cultivating, or raising timber. Reference: RCW 82.04.213 and WAC 458-20-210.

Wholesale Purchases

Line 1 applies to purchases of chemical sprays and washes for the post harvest treatment of fruit to prevent scald, fungus, mold, or decay. These are wholesale purchases and are not subject to sales tax. Reference: RCW 82.04.050(10), 82.04.060, and WAC 458-20-210.

Line 2 applies to the purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, spray materials (pesticides), and enhanced pollination agents by farmers and persons who participate in the federal conservation reserve program, the environmental quality incentives program, the wetlands reserve program, and the wildlife habitat incentives program, or their successors administered by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). These are wholesale purchases and are not subject to sales tax. Reference: RCW 82.04.050(09), 82.04.060, and WAC 458-20-210.

For example, packing materials purchased by a farmer to contain agricultural products that the farmer will sell. However, the purchase of binder twine for hay that the farmer will use to feed the farmer's livestock is a retail sale and subject to retail sales tax. Another example is the purchase of young livestock to raise for sale. Specifically, the purchase of feeder piglets or calves that the farmer will raise to sell is a wholesale purchase. Reference: WAC 458-20-210.
